

LANGUAGE AS A FORM OF ACTION

CONFERENCE 21 - 23 JUNE 2017

ROME

CNR - P.le Aldo Moro, 7
Sala Convegni

We aim to explore the concept of language in its full complexity by considering the interaction of vocal, manual and non-manual features in spoken languages as well as in signed languages.

The Conference will include 4 oral sessions and 3 poster sessions

Keynote Speakers:

Adam Kendon

(Cambridge University and University College London, UK)

Semiotic and modality diversity in the utterance: a languaging perspective

Sotaro Kita

(University of Warwick, Coventry, UK)

*Deictic gestures for discourse cohesion:
Mechanisms for production and comprehension*

Marie-Anne Sallandre & Marie-Thérèse L'Huillier

(Universite Paris-8, France)

The Semiological Model for Sign Language: focus on deixis, eye gaze and acquisition

Virginia Volterra

(Institute of Cognitive Sciences and Technologies, CNR Rome, Italy)

Searching for the roots of words and signs in children's early action and gestures

This conference is made possible also thanks to:

Sezione Sperimentale

Gruppo per lo studio
e l'informazione della
Lingua dei Segni Italiana

Local Committee

- Olga Capirci
- Alessio Di Renzo
- Francesca Lasorsa
- Barbara Pennacchi
- Morgana Proietti
- Anita Slonimska

Conference Language:

The conference languages will be English,
International Signs and Italian Sign Language.
Sign language interpreters
(International Signs and Italian Sign Language)
will be available.